Important:

You can nominate a child 18 or older only if:

- they are aged between 18 and 25 and financially dependent on you immediately before your death; or
- they are disabled within the meaning of the Disability Services Act 1986 (Cth).

Any income stream payable to a child over 18 years old, who is not disabled, will only be paid until the child reaches the age of 25, at which time a lump sum of the remaining account balance will be paid. If the child is disabled as described above, the income stream will be payable until the account balance becomes zero.

We are unable to transfer details of the beneficiary you have nominated on your existing CSCri account to your new CSCri account.

Select one option only.

☐ For binding and non binding nominations use the Nominate your beneficiaries form available at csc.gov.au

OR

☐ Reversionary beneficiary (provide their details below).

Nominating a reversionary beneficiary means that if you die, your income stream will continue to be paid to your nominated dependant until the benefit is reduced to nil or commuted.
