PSS fees and other costs

This booklet explains the fees and costs that apply to your PSS account, and other fees and costs you may encounter—depending on the super services you use or the options you take up.

What's inside?

We've divided this booklet into the following parts:

- Fees for managing your investment options. The table on page 3 gives you a high-level view of the fees and costs that apply to your PSS investment options and other, additional fees.
- An example of annual fees and costs on page 4.
- An explanation of defined fees and costs. These are defined under the relevant superannuation legislation, and we explain how they apply to your PSS account. See pages 5 and 6.

Did you know?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees.* Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

To find out more

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) Moneysmart website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation calculator to help you check out different fee options.

*We are required by law to provide you with this information, however lower fees cannot be negotiated with the Fund.

The calculator on the ASIC website can be used to calculate the effect of fees and costs on account balances.

Fees and other costs

This section shows fees and other costs that you may be charged. These fees and other costs may be deducted from your money, from the returns on your investment or from the assets of the super entity as a whole.

Other fees, such as activity fees, advice fees for personal advice and insurance fees, may also be charged, but these will depend on the nature of the activity, advice or insurance chosen by you. Entry and exit fees cannot be charged.

Taxes, insurance fees and other costs relating to insurance are set out in the Tax and your PSS booklet.

You should read all the information about fees and other costs because it is important to understand their impact on your investment.

The fees and other costs for each investment option offered by the entity, are set out on page 3.

¹ If your account balance for a product offered by the superannuation entity is less than $6,000 at the end of the entity’s income year, certain fees and costs charged to you in relation to administration and investment are capped at 3% of the account balance. Any amount charged in excess of that cap must be refunded.

² These costs are based on the 2023–24 financial year and are rounded to the nearest two decimal places. The actual amounts will change from year to year and may be different to the amounts shown. The calculation basis for this amount is set out under ‘Additional explanation of fees and costs’.

³ Investment fees and costs includes an amount of 0–0.21% for performance fees.

The material relating to Fees and costs may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

GST

Family law fee

A fee of $150 for members and $165 ($150 plus GST) for non-members is payable for the preparation of a response for superannuation information made in accordance with family law legislation. The fee covers the cost of the administration work required to respond to a request.

Investment fees and costs

PSS's Investment fees and costs includes investment fees and performance fees.

The total estimated Investment fees and costs are based on actual and estimated costs incurred during the 2023–24 Financial Year and are shown in the 'Fees and cost summary' on page 3.

Performance fees

We pay performance fees to investment managers who charge these fees if (and only if) the performance of their investment exceeds certain benchmarks. When this happens, performance fees are deducted from earnings before the return to PSS is calculated, and this increases Investment fees and costs.

We've carefully and deliberately designed our fee agreements with our fund managers to make sure they align with your interests, and two outcomes are possible:

- We pay less in fees when investment performance is below target. This means the investment manager more equitably shares the downside risk.
- We pay more in fees when performance is above target. Note, we set maximum performance-based fee limits for strong performance in any one year.

Actual performance based fees depend on the level of performance achieved by investment managers who charge performance-based fees, and the weighting of those managers in the relevant investment option.

In turn, our Investment fees and costs vary from year to year in line with the performance recorded by underlying fund managers.

In the 2023–24 Financial Year the following estimated performance fees were paid and are reflected in the Investment fees and costs estimates:

- Cash 0%
- Default 0.21%

It's worth noting that amounts previously paid in performance-based fees may not be indicative of performance-based fee amounts that may be payable in the future.

The Performance fee is calculated as the average performance fees for each investment option for the previous 5 years (or the number of financial years in which it operated or had a performance fee charging mechanism in place, if in either case it was less than 5 years).

We regularly review the estimates of performance-based fees that we reflect in PSS earning rates and we may change them, for example, because of changes to the:

- asset allocation;
- weighting and composition of underlying investments; and
- fees charged by underlying investments.

Transaction costs

Transaction costs are additional costs to PSS members and they are reflected in earning rates.

The total estimated transaction costs are based on actual and estimated costs incurred during the 2023–24 Financial Year and are shown in the 'Fees and cost summary' on page 3.

Operational risk reserve

We're required by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) to fund and maintain an operational risk reserve. The operational risk reserve may form an additional cost that has a minor negative impact on investment earnings.

For more information about the operational risk reserve, download the Investment options and risk booklet from our website.
