- We must hold your Tax File Number (TFN) before we can accept personal (after-tax) contributions.
- We must hold your spouse's TFN before we can accept your spouse contributions.

Further information on conditions that apply to each contribution type, including eligibility, age limits and contribution caps is available online at csc.gov.au and ato.gov.au

* An eligible PSSap member is someone who is currently employed by an eligible employer, or was previously employed by an eligible employer for at least 12 continuous months.

Your Tax File Number (TFN)

I have already provided my TFN to PSSap/ADF Super

Important: Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, CSC is authorised to collect, use and disclose your tax file number. We may disclose your tax file number to another superannuation provider when your benefits are being transferred, unless you request to us in writing that your tax file number not be disclosed to any other superannuation provider. Declining to quote your tax file number is not an offence, however giving your tax file number to us will have the following advantages:

- we will be able to accept all permitted types of contributions to your account/s;
- other than the tax that may ordinarily apply, you will not pay more tax than you need to—this affects both contributions to your superannuation and benefit payments when you start drawing down your superannuation benefits; and
- it will make it much easier to find different superannuation accounts in your name so that you receive all your superannuation benefits when you retire.

Contribution type

I wish to make the following contribution:

☐ A personal (after-tax) contribution to my own PSSap/ADF Super account

OR

☐ A contribution to my spouse's PSSap/ADF Super account (eligible spouse contribution)

Note: A tax offset of up to $540 is available to a tax-payer who makes contributions into their spouse's account where the spouse's income is less than $40,000 pa, the spouse has not exceeded their non-concessional contribution cap and does not claim the contribution as a tax deduction. They must also have a Total Super Balance below $1.9 million.

Refer to ato.gov.au for further information including the full eligibility criteria.

For the purpose of establishing whether my spouse is eligible to receive an eligible spouse contribution into their PSSap/ADF Super account, I declare that my spouse:

☐ lives with me on a permanent basis

☐ is a resident of Australia

☐ is not employed by me

and

☐ is aged 74 years or below
