Six steps to super success for women

Flip the script on retirement inequality

Take steps today—consolidate accounts, choose your investment option or make voluntary contributions—to outsmart the super gap.

1 Check your Annual Statement

See how your super's performed over the past financial year and how you're tracking towards your future. Look for our email to you or log in to CSC Navigator: csc.gov.au/login

2 Find and combine your super

Got more than one super account? Multiple fees and charges mean you could be paying too much. Check your insurance cover before deciding what to do. Combine accounts: csc.gov.au/supermatch

3 Choose your investment option

Designed to fit your financial goals and risk preferences. Put your super in the right investment option for you. Explore choices: csc.gov.au/investment-options

4 Grow your super

Every contribution counts. Consider voluntary contributions, salary sacrificing or micro-investing. Discover how: csc.gov.au/grow

5 Review your insurance

Make sure your insurance changes as your circumstances evolve. Check your cover and see your options: csc.gov.au/lifePLUS

6 Nominate a beneficiary

Let us know who you'd prefer your super to go to. Update your beneficiary nomination: csc.gov.au/beneficiary
